

.....(the customer)
herewith gives its assurance, for the present order _____ that:

1. it holds all the necessary rights of use, especially the rights of reproduction and distribution, in the sound, picture and data recordings handed over to CD Press Luxembourg for the execution of the orders by CD Press Luxembourg,
2. it holds the right to use all sound, picture and data records and other records or recordings that are covered in the object of the orders,
3. it has paid all copyright and performance right fees to the competent offices.

Irrespective of any further claims and rights, the customer shall hold CD Press Luxembourg free at first request from any claims by third parties made against the latter on account of the use, within the scope of the orders of the sound, picture and data recordings including the costs of any appropriate legal defect. This also includes demands and suits initiated by national or international copyright federations or corresponding organisations arising from alleged or actual violation of the right as including any lawyers' and court costs.
